ECONOMY (?)

Since the appearance of the article in the editorial column written by Dave Hart, concerning the cost of dances there has been some comment among the students which sums itself up in this manner:

Where does the $16.00 paid floor manager, door-keeper, and check-room labor go? Four men are employed, two faculty members and two students. From what we can gather the two faculty members get five dollars each, and the two students the balance. In light of the strained financial status of the student body, student would like to know why this expense? Students ask why a student cannot take the job of the door-keeper and the expense there. Then they ask why it is the ordinary labor around the school gets about thirty cents an hour and these other students in the check room get three times that amount? It seems an unfair discrimination.

At least there is this that can be said, there is a chance for a little more economy.

OUR STADIUM YEAR

Those alumni who may have the misgivings about the success of the Alumni Stadium project should spend a few moments and visit the site below University Hall where about five hundred students and faculty members have already given a day's work toward the furtherance of the project. This co-operation, coupled with that given by the Knight Coal Company, the Wastach Grading Company and the local steel plant, has gone far toward making evident marked progress at every turn.

The next step in the stadium progress is the consummation of a plan whereby a ticket sale drive among alumni and friends will be held in the necessary amount to complete the first unit of the stadium in time for the big home-coming sale next fall.

The tickets sale will include home-coming game tickets, season tickets, and tickets for several seasons, these ranging in amounts from $5.00 to $50.00.

Alumni and friends are urged to plan their participation in the big stadium home-coming next fall, and in the interim, procure their tickets when the drive begins about the last of May.

Seniors Preside In High School Assembly

The program to be given in high school assembly tomorrow morning will be sponsored by the senior class under the direction of Alma Hild, senior president. Wednesday marks the annual day of the seniors and activities will be under their direction.

The program will include the following numbers: Gully Gully by Evelyn Johnson and Zola Martin, a reading by Albert Corless, a dance number of Johnny Morgan and Jean Newell, and a song sung by Austin Heywood. Vocal numbers are to have been secured.

The climax of the senior regalia will be the annual senior hop to be held Thursday night in the Ladies' gym at 8:30. The Collegians have been secured for the dance and an extra feature has been arranged. Fifty cents of the students will be admitted for fifty cents while one dollar will be charged those without student body books.

It is significant to note that as increasing number of our senior dollars of affairs speak more loudly in the language of the table as they progress with years of active life.

Students Plan Prom Decorations For The American Fork H. S.

Carlie Brathwaite, Paul Kahol, Elmer Johnson, Elbert Anderson and Clifford Ruchelberg of the Art Service club have accomplished a very beautiful project for the art department in decorating the American Fork auditorium for the annual junior prom on Saturday, March 31. The art display centered around the idea of a springtime flower garden.

Professor Eastman developed the theme in connection with the above named artists.

GIRLS PREPARE TO GIVE SUPPORT TO MEN UNITS IN TRACK CLASSIC

Sprint Preliminaries Will Be Run Off On Wednesday Many Entrants Expected

The first annual inter-school track meet takes place Thursday afternoon at the Y. Field, and it marks the beginning of what promises to be a tradition of the school in the years to come. Since it is the first of its kind to be held here, special and elaborate plans in this event, and the arrangements already made indicate that the meet will be rather novel and will be featured by some still competition.

Though a number of men who otherwise would have participated will be with the girls club, there are still some two scores of men who will be on hand to represent the unit to which they belong.

The preliminaries for the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, and the high and low hurdles will be run off Wednesday afternoon, and the finals will take place Thursday at 3:30.

The program of events is as follows:

100-yard dash, mile run, 220-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdle, 400-yard run, 800-yard run, 1200-yard hurdles, one-half mile run, one-half mile relay.

The field events are: Shot put, pole vault, high jump, discus, broad jump, and javelin throw.

TAU KAPPA ALPHA TO MEET

The Tau Kappa Alpha, debating fraternity, will meet Wednesday at the Y. Field to discuss important business.

The Tau Kappa Alpha fraternity will conduct the tryouts for the Rocky Mountain Oratorical Contest Thursday night in the Little Theatre.

GILCHRIST GIVES MUNK REAL BATTLE FOR WIN

Five of the eight seeded players have reached the quarter-finals in the spring tennis tournament with no upsets that far although in some cases the favorites were forced to the limit to take their matches.

Bruce Gilchrist defeated Claude Snow 6-4, 6-0 to gain a quarter-final berth. Mrs. Porter defeated M. Perkins with a 6-0, 6-0 score, for a chance to meet Billie Mossy in quarter-final play. Mossy had defeated Verner in the first round of play 6-1, 6-0, and then put Pratt out of competition after having dropped the first set to him, 3-6, 6-3.

Ross Walker will meet Lew Munk in the quarter-final event, having defeated Munk Gilchrist 7-5, 6-4. This was one of the surprise matches of the tournament. Munk gave the seeded player a real scare when he took the first four games from him and relinquished the set only after going to deuce.

The winner of the Jones-Berge Borge match will meet Gilchrist in the first round match, that between Rossy Snow and Croft, will decide who will meet Grant Buttle in the second round. The winner of the match will tangle with the winner of the Rossy-Belth match. Belth had defeated Wilson 6-1, 6-1 in the first round match.

There will be some interesting matches played this week when Verner must either seeded players for places in the final rounds, and it is expected that the tourney will take on a more competitive aspect that will fill the ranks of the players.

Many of the previous matches have been captured with, with a fast and fine type of tennis.

1928 Honor Reunion

Some five hundred names of former honor men and women of Brigham Young university have been assembled by Miss Jewel Lindebaugh of the Block 'Y' Club, in preparation for the long-looked for reunion this year of those who in year-years represent of Alma Mater in inter-collegiate activities of various sorts. Chairman A. Rex Johnson of this century's honor men reunion, reports that several have already written in asking the details regarding the dinner, etc., which is to be held at Comptons' time on May 29, in connection with the reunion of various alumni classes. It is planned that the main feature of the honor men reunion will be on the evening of Tuesday, May 29, before the college hall program of these classes which hold reunions in 1928. A special program of music and banquets is in store for those who avail themselves of the opportunity of returning to Alma Mater. It is very significant that this return of honor men to the campus comes almost on the heels of the dedication of the new Alumni Stadium, development of which will be well under way by commencement time.

Devotional Is Taken Up by Announcements

Monday's assembly was principally given over to announcements of various contests and events to take place in the near future. President Harris gave a gentle reminder to the effect that all students are expected to be present at assemblies, unless excused for adequate cause. The student body joined in singing "Our Glorious Banner" and the remainder of the time was devoted to class meetings.

Stewart Has Interesting Exhibit In Room D

We are favored with an exhibit of art etchings and pen and pencil drawings by LeConte Stewart, one of Utah's most promising artists. The collection shows a very high degree of artistic ability and of accomplished quality. Mr. Stewart is the most brilliant of desert scenes. This exhibit is to be found in Room D.

The Theta Alpha Phi organization will hold a meeting next Tuesday, April 3, in The Little Theatre. The One-Act Play contest will be discussed and the subject "Sources of Plot in Elizabethan Tragedies" will be the special topic of interest.

Professor Peddie announces that an important communication has been received from headquarters at Galesburg, Ill., and urges full attendance at the meeting.

"Have you anything to say, precisely before sentence is passed on you?" asked the judge.

"No, your lordship, except that it takes very little to please me."
